TRAINING WORKSHOP ON RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

Social Science Research Institute (SSRI) is going to organize a training workshop on Research Methodology between 8th and 10th September 2015, to be held at the faculty of Social Science, Chittagong University.

This 3-day workshop integrates theoretical principles with practical skills for conducting social research and data analysis. It is suitable not only for faculty members involved in designing and conducting qualitative research but also for anyone wishing to analyze quantitative data or those who supervises research staffs and graduate students.

We will use lecture-based sessions, skill building activities and hands-on sessions with data analysis software.

Typical participants include young teachers and researchers of Chittagong University and other Public Universities.

However, since the workshop utilizes interactive learning to promote skill development, the number of participants is limited.

Registration commences on 24th August and finishes by 27th August 2015. Registration fees for the faculty members BDT 1000/=

Early registration is encouraged. For Registration and other information please contact:
